

JVC's CCTV Truck Tour comes to the UK

After travelling across Europe, the JVC Truck has now landed in the UK. Kicking off the UK leg of the tour, the van has visited London and will be continuing its journey across the country over the next coming weeks.

The truck, which is packed full with JVC's latest equipment, is manned by specialists providing expert knowledge and in-depth demonstrations for products in the CCTV sector.

All the major CCTV components and accessories will be demonstrated fully as part of the tour, including direct drive high-speed domes, Megapixel network systems.

cameras, full-frame dual-stream IP cameras and entire Showcasing innovative ideas and years of experience in the security field, the JVC Truck Tour is set to come to a town near you.

JVC's Monitor magazine is packed with user stories and exclusive information about our latest security products, so click here to sign up for your free magazine.

Click here for more information about JVC's Truck Tour.

Click here for product information.